Scouting Report: Strong, smart, quick and crafty lefty combo guard that really excels on the offensive end getting to the basket as either a distributor or scorer, with a good stroke from off the catch or dribble and a quick release. Has a mean streak to his game and is a solid on ball defender as well. Humble and quiet kid off the court who has a strong focus on academics. He split time last season between his club team (which is equivalent to a high school level in the US) and the Under 18 National team. He was looked to play more off the ball with the Under 18 team and he showed his ability to put the ball in the basket. Contact him directly to request additional highlight video or full game film.

London, England
School: London College
Team: London Suns (club team)
Position: C/PF
Ht/Wt: 6'9", 280 lbs
Academics: 2.4 GPA; 16 ACT

Scouting Report: Skilled post with soft hands and GREAT size. Potential program changer at the right place and with the right style of play. Good length, keeps the ball high on rebounds, and can face up or score with in the paint with either hand. Main weakness is that he isn't a super athlete, however he moves well for a player of her size. Also a good kid with a bubbly personality who will need Junior College unless his test scores improve but definitely worth a look in case that happens. Contact him directly to request additional highlight video or full game film.
